AURORA WINTER WEEK TOUR

This week tour is an opportunity to discover Iceland in winter, with focus on the South. The tour is only for organized groups, incentives and VIP groups. The program is flexible and can be changed according to customer's specific wishes or depending on weather conditions.

Day 1: Arrival and Transfer: transfer to accommodation in Selfoss or Hveragerdi. Stop at the Blue Lagoon for a relaxing and warm bath.

Day 2: Golden Circle: tour includes visits to the Thingvellir National Park, a UNESCO world heritage site, Geusir hot spring area, the majestic Gullfoss waterfall, Skalholt church and Kerid crater.

Day 3: Jökulsárlón, the Glacial Lagoon: well known for its colorful (black, blue and white) floating icebergs. Overnight and dinner in Skaftafell.

Day 4: Skaftafell – Skogar – Selfoss or Hveragerdi: visit to the Communication Museum and the Skogar folk Museum for an insight into the standards of living of the past century in South Iceland.

Day 5: Ghosts, Elves and Trolls: drive to Stokkseyri to visit the Icelandic Wonders, an elves, trolls and Northern Lights center, and to the Ghost Centre. An adventure hunt of the Northern Lights follows.

Day 6: Riding the Icelandic Horse: morning horse riding experience starts in a horse farm nearby Selfoss and Hveragerdi. Rest of the day is free.

Day 7: Reykjavik Sightseeing: an introduction to Reykjavik, its history and development with stops at important sites. The rest of the day is free. Overnight in Reykjavik.

Day 8: Airport Transfer for departure: If late flight, visit to the Blue Lagoon (if not done during the arrival day).
